

Photosynthesis, by Bette Korber

Sept. 3, 2022

Chorus

D                    A
Air and Water asleep, 'til light touches leaf
      D            A7                    D                    G
Life woven by trees from the stream and the breeze
      A7                    D                    A            G
In Sun's warm embrace Earth spins her grace
A            A7            G                    A
All life, all dreams born in simple things.

Verse 1:

D            G
Meadow, grassland and forest deep,
A            A            G                    A
Woodland and tundra keep    our planet breathing
Instrumental repeats verse, then repeat chorus.

Verse 2:

D                    G
Walk now in beauty you'll find your home,
      A                                    G            A
Rise up from the broken stone    into all wonder

Last Chorus:

D                    A
Air and Water asleep, 'til light touches leaf
      D            A7                    D                    G
Life woven by trees from the stream and the breeze
      A7                    D                    A            G
In Sun's warm embrace Earth spins her grace
      A            A7            D            G    A    G A    G A    A
All life, all dreams born in the green

Outro

A Em            A            A                    G
Samhradh    Samhradh    Summer    Summertime.
      A Em                    A            A Em            A
Samhradh    Samhradh    Air water sunshine.
      A Em            A            A                    G
Samhradh    Samhradh    Summer    Summertime.
      A Em            A            A            G            D
Samhradh    Samhradh    Air water sunshine.

You're welcome to play this song with attribution, Creative Commons 4.0 (CC 4.0)